

1.3.4_CE_file no:3- Report of the field visit / sample photographs of the field projects

Report of the field visit / sample photographs of the field projects

DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING

Community Service project

Second year civil Engineering student's undergone Community Service project. Community service is donated service is performed by our students for the benefit of public institutions the community of Venkatapuram village was cleared of dirty and also provided the Water Filtration techniques conducted soil and water testing and filtration techniques used for water treatment and also road rehabilitation techniques for repairing of roads by students of Civil Engineering students, Annamacharya Institute of Technology & Sciences, Tirupati.

Water Collection & Water Testing & Filtration Technique awareness

Socially relevant project

Third year Civil Engineering students undergone socially relevant project which helps them to enhance the knowledge on pollution and environmental related issues, waste replacement and energy saving green building concepts ect..

Field Project

Final year civil engineering student's undergone field projects in their core subject area like determination of fresh and hardened properties of concrete, environmental engineering related projects and traffic volume related projects

